

Reverend Katz Library

New Book Reviews

May 2019

During the month of May we celebrate Yom Haatzmaut. In our Library we have many books on the theme of Israel. We invite you to browse our shelves under the heading ISRAEL to find some thought provoking and interesting books. Listed are a few examples:

Israel in the world changing lives through innovation - Helen and Douglas Davies

The promise of Israel- Gordis

The story of Israel – Martin Gilbert

Jerusalem – Martin Gilbert

How to understand Israel in 60 days – Sarah Glidden

Coming together, coming apart: a memoir of heartbreak and promise in Israel

The Netanyahu years – Ben Caspit

A durable peace: Israel and its place among nations – Benjamin Netanyahu

Fighters over Israel – Lon Norden

The other side of Israel – Susan Norden

Israel from the air – Itamar Grinberg

Pillar of Fire – Yigal Lossin; the rebirth of Israel

Yotam Ottolengi Jerusalem – Sami Tamimi (recipes of a world famous Israel chef)